

COMMITMENTS

Mission: To facilitate Cargill in meeting its commitment to being a leader in corporate citizenship by nourishing the people and possibilities that reside within the greater Wichita community. Focus: Ensuring an accessible, nutritious and safe food supply, promoting innovation in education, and demonstrating responsible stewardship of natural resources. Additionally, special emphasis will be given to those organizations that have the involvement and support of our employees.

Council members: Alan Smith, Mark Iseman, Jody Franklin, Michelle Boston, Angie Geiman, Christine Rindfuss, Roger Watchorn, Cyndi Mundine, Dirk Jones, Gale Engels, Janice Rocheleau, Chris Trumble, Teresa McGrath, Rick Schaulis, Steve Matson, Jescia Smart, Amy Walenta, Jenny Ellis, Teri Debbalak, Angelo Fiaturulo, Dout Ott. CMS alternates: Ken Moldenhauer and Matt Ferguson

Cargill Cares - Wichita Council

The Wichita council of Cargill Cares is made up of the following Wichita businesses: Cargill Dressings, Sauces & Oils; Cargill Grain & Oilseed Supply Chain; Horizon Milling and Cargill Meat Solutions.

Our Community

"We must become the change we want to see"
Mahatma Gandhi

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES EASTER SEALS OF KS

Cargill was honored as Corporate Benefactor of the Year at Goodwill Industries Easter Seals annual dinner held in October at the Wichita Marriott. President and CEO, Emily Compton was presented a check for the second installment of Cargill Cares' grant for the Adult Literacy program.

IFM ENRICHMENT CENTER

In conjunction with Cargill Minneapolis, Cargill Cares granted Interfaith Ministries $100,000 for an enrichment center aimed at improving life skills for those occupying the Inter-Faith Villas, a permanent, affordable, and community-based housing for those in need.

This month the Villa Courts Enrichment Center held its open house where Cargill Cares was acknowledged for the grant. Chairperson Angie Geiman addressed the audience and media on behalf of the committee.

KS Humane Society

Woofstock Awareness week matched six pets with Cargill employees: Basset Hound named Sampson, adopted by Mike Greening; Jake, a Black Lab is home with Carolyn Lay; Basset Hound/Lab Candy belongs to Micah Reilly; White/Orange flamepoint named Whiskey is Misti Johnson's and 2 gray Tabby kittens were adopted by Anita Curry.

Our People

" You can't live a perfect day without doing something for someone who will never be able to repay you."

James Wooden

THE KANSAS FOODBANK – CARGILL CARES COMPLEX

Honeysuckle White donated about $40,000 worth of turkeys for Thanksgiving giveaways at the complex.

Cargill Case Ready President & Food Bank Board Member, John Keating with Angie Geiman and her daughter

Channel 12 anchor Kim Setty broadcasts in front of one of the pallets of turkeys

Sunrise Rotary Boundless Playground Check Presentation

Members of the Kansas Rotary were presented a $10,000 grant for construction of The Sunrise Playground, a play space situated in the Sedgwick County Park allowing children of all abilities to play. The park is expected to be completed next year.

AVID Program

North High School's AVID program is proving successful with a jump in graduation rate from 48% to 80%. Cargill Cares invested a four-year totaling $200,000 as well as recently supplying nearly 60 volunteers for the e-mentoring program with AVID students (for more information log on to www.CargillCarePoints.com)

Cargill Care Grants since July 2007 (includes funds, product donations and/or volunteer opportunities:

- American Legion Scholarship Fund
- Junior Achievement
- Kansas Humane Society
- Chapel Hill United Methodist
- Rotary Club
- Susan B. Koman Race for the Cure
- Veterans Emergency Transition Services
- Haysville Senior Center
- Kansas 4-H
- Ronald McDonald House
- Veterans Fair @ Wichita Aviation Museum
- Turkey Trot

To apply for a Cargill Cares Wichita Grant go to: http://www.cargillmeatsolutions.com/about_us/ccwc.htm